

RESOLUTION

BOARD OF DIRECTORS AMERICAN CONCRETE PAVEMENT ASSOCIATION

TITLE: Congratulating the President-elect and the Vice President-elect and Offering ACPA's Expertise and Advice to the New Administration on Highway Infrastructure Investment and Improvement Initiatives

WHEREAS, The American Concrete Pavement Association (ACPA) is the technical, promotion, and legislative advocacy organization of the concrete pavement industry, and

WHEREAS, Concrete pavements have long been recognized as the long-life, cost efficient, durable pavement structure, and

WHEREAS, ACPA, with its members and affiliates have vast technical and policy expertise with respect to highway infrastructure investment and construction,

NOW THEREFORE, be it resolved this 30th day of November, 2016, that the American Concrete Pavement Association congratulates Donald J. Trump and Michael R. Pence on their election as President and Vice President of the United States;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that ACPA hereby advises the President-elect and the Vice- President-elect and their representatives that ACPA is ready and eager to provide them the concrete pavement industry's expertise and advice regarding the development and implementation of highway infrastructure investment and improvement initiatives both during the transition period and under the new Administration.